CRITICAL THINKING

Thinking about other people's interests

Tips

Don't simply choose your personal preference, think about other options.

Think about advantages and disadvantages of different ideas.

Ask what most people will prefer.

Key phrases

I know you like ..., but ...

I think only a few people will want to do that.

We have to think about what other people want.

That's a nice idea, but it's difficult to organise.

Most people like ...

I think that's best for everyone.

- 5 In your group, choose one idea in exercise 3 to make a proposal for how to spend the final lesson at the end of the school year.

- 1 Include answers to the questions in exercise 2.
- 2 Think of reasons to explain your decisions. Make sure your proposal is fun, but easy to organise. Remember that you must use English in the lesson.
- 3 Use the tips and Key phrases in the Super skills box.

STEP 3: CREATE ■■■■

- 6 Choose a format (poster, slideshow) and create the presentation for your proposal.
- 7 Practise giving your presentation.
